ORDER

22-CV-2766 (AT) (JLC)

JAMES L. COTT, United States Magistrate Judge.

The Court held an initial conference in this pro se civil rights case today by telephone. As a result of the information that plaintiff provided at the conference, the Court hereby directs plaintiff to make an application – in the form of a letter to the Court – requesting the appointment of counsel to represent him in this case. In this letter, plaintiff should include a description of the evidence that he says is in his possession to support the allegations in his complaint. This request for the appointment of counsel should be submitted to the Court no later than February 17, 2023. Plaintiff is also directed to update his address on file with the Court (and note that this is a continuing obligation whenever his address changes).

As further discussed at the conference, the Court will not set a discovery schedule until the issue of plaintiff's representation has been resolved.

SO ORDERED.
